Right 1 are excited to offer to the market this extended 3-bedroom semi-detached family home, situated within the very popular Shire & Lloyds area of Corby.

This wonderful family home has been greatly improved and refurbished to an excellent level by the current owners and is a great opportunity for anyone looking to acquire a spacious 3-bedroom property which really gives that 'Move In Ready' feel.

Offered with space in abundance, this property consists of; Entrance Hall with ample storage options, leading to living room and kitchen, which between you will find a separate dining room too. The downstairs also benefits from having a large bathroom, with large tub featuring multi-point shower unit, which has all been finished to an immaculate and excellent standard. Also, off from here you will find a separate utility/storage room, as well as an extra reception area meaning that there is plenty of living spaces downstairs to use and enjoy, this a room which also gives access to both front and rear garden which gives the property great accessibility.

Upstairs there are three good sized bedrooms, all of which currently hold double beds in them. Bedrooms 1 and 3 also feature built in wardrobe spaces for added convenience and storage options too. There is also a shower room here, giving an option for this both up and down the stairs, the shower room has again been finished to a very stylish design and is a 4-piece suite featuring a bidet.

Outside, the property boasts gardens to both the front and rear and due to the green space at the front, means that it sits nicely distanced from the road ahead. The back garden is a brilliant space for the family to enjoy, and due to the vast improvements made here by the current owners it offers great versatility; having a covered sitting area, feature outside oven, large shed at the rear, as well as being laid to lawn making it a great space. The enclosed rear garden also offers a good degree of privacy here too.
